

Honorable Commissioners:

Given the current inability or unwillingness of the Commission to enforce the existing amateur radio regulations, I can't see how enacting a bandwidth restriction will make any difference to the anarchy that now prevails on the ham bands. When you clean up the 11 meter CB mess and get the truckers off the CW portion of the 10 meter band then, perhaps, it will be time to discuss changes in the amateur regulations.

Regards, Roger N1RJ